Walter (Timmy) Kees

Saturday December 18th and Sunday December 19th, 2010

With over 25 years experience on the “A” horse show circuit, W.T. (“Timmy”) Kees is one of the country’s most prominent hunter/equitation trainers. Raised in Maryland riding in pony club and galloping his mother’s race horses, Kees began his career by selling horses from the race track to George Morris and Ronnie Mutch. He later joined Mutch as Assistant Trainer at Nimrod Farm in Weston, CT. His riders have won the ASPCA Maclay, AHSA Medal and USET equitation finals a total of seven times. Kees has also trained hunters such as Holy Smoke, Watership Down, So No Wonder, Castaway and Double Cinco to championships at Devon, Harrisburg, Washington and New York. He is an AHSA “R” judge and conducts clinics throughout the country. Kees is based in Red Gate Farm, where he trains horses and riders for the hunter, jumper and equitation divisions with his partner’s Olympic gold medalist Leslie Burr Howard and Grand Prix rider Chris Cawley
